Announcements.

YOUNGERS.
The friends of Rowland C. Burns beg to announce that he is a candidate for Congress in this district in 1902 subject to the action of the Republican party. He believes that a mountain man is as good as any one.

The German Emperor's yacht Melor was successfully launched at Shooter's Island in the presence of President Roosevelt, Prince Henry and a great crowd. Miss Alice Roosevelt christened the yacht. Before the luncheon which followed on the Hohenzollern the Prince presented to Miss Roosevelt the Emperor's gift, a gold bracelet with the Emperor's portrait in diamonds.

The Rivers and Harbor bill will be reported within a short time now, and it is hoped to get through early. We are particularly anxious that it should become a law early enough to make it practicable to let the contract for the dams below Louisa in time to have them completed this season. This would give us the use of the river one season sooner, and the advantages of the pool to contractors in building the four locks and dams above here would enable the government to contract the work several thousand dollars cheaper than otherwise.

The House Committee on Judicial redistricting has decided upon a Circuit Court district to be composed of Lawrence, Johnson, Magoffin, Morgan and Elliott. In the Senate, Mr. Pritchard is working to retain this district just as it is at present. The House committee also makes a district of Pike, Floyd, Knott and Martin counties. Boyd county is to be put in a district with Carter, Greenup and Lewis.

A new legislative district is to be composed of Lawrence and Elliott. Senatorial, Boyd, Lawrence, Johnson and Martin.

There is also some probability of Lawrence county being added to the Tenth Congressional district. As the legislature is drawing almost to a close all these matters will have to be settled within the next few days.

Mr. W. W. Baker, of Blueview, N. Y., writes: "My wife had lung trouble for over 15 years. We tried a number of doctors and spent over a thousand dollars without any relief. She was very low and lost all hope, when a friend suggested trying Foley's Honey and Tar which I did, and thanks to this great remedy it saved his life. This is a strong and enjoys better health than she has ever known in ten years. We shall never be without Foley's Honey and Tar and would ask those afflicted to try it." Sold by A. M. Hughes.

The following is taken from the Hamilton (C. E.)
Martin Rice, son of A. S. born at Hamilton, Ohio, February 19th, 1880, and died at Louisa, Ky., January 15th, 1902, aged 21 years, 10 months and 27 days.

Of his early life, which was spent in Hamilton, mention need not be made, as all knew him. He enlisted in the 33rd U. S. V. I. in September, 1899, at White House, Ky., and as a private served in the Philippines until March, 1901, when he was returned on the hospital ship and mustered out, having lost his health in the service. Concerning his army record his lieutenant wrote a sister, stating that he was a model for young men, both as a man and soldier, and that he spent the greater part of his spare time at the Y. M. C. A. tent.

His captain later wrote this same sister, when inquiry was made regarding his health, that he was sick, but he hoped not seriously, "for the service," he added, "could ill spare such a soldier," and also informing her that she had a brother to be proud of—one whom all loved and respected, and that he had sacrificed his health for his country.

He returned of Kentucky and seemed to improve, but a change of climate was advised and he went to the Southwest, where he died of hemorrhage of the lungs.

While not a member of any church, he was a young man who revered all that was good, and had not a single bad habit, was ever thoughtful of others, putting self aside, so much so that he would try to hide his illness to spare those he loved any worry over him and made every effort to bear up cheerfully during his entire illness, never complaining.

He leaves two sisters to mourn the loss of a brother who was a brother, indeed, to follow a father, mother and sister, who passed on before him. All whom he knew were friends, as he made no enemies.

The remains reached Hamilton at noon on Monday and the funeral was held at 2 o'clock the same day at the Presbyterian church. The Rev. Geo. S. Miller conducted the service, assisted by the Rev. E. J. Pace. The sermon was from the words: "And we all do fade as a leaf"—Is. Lxlv. 6. Interment was in Hamilton cemetery.

SHOT AT WHITEHOUSE

Richard Rote, Swede Tramp, Shot By Elmer Hicks.

NOT THE MAN WANTED AT BIRMINGHAM

Last Monday Jack Osborn and Elmer Hicks, both citizens of this county, went up to Whitehouse on the track of a Swede tramp who they claim was Frank Duncan, a desperado who was engaged in a big robbery in Alabama and after having killed policemen Kirby and Adams at Birmingham, and was sentenced to death and escaped, but for whom a reward of $500 was offered. They came up with the tramp near Ward City and Hicks says that when they ordered him to throw up his hands he reached for his pocket as though to draw a weapon. Hicks fired on him with a shot gun, tearing away the greater part of his left cheek and neck, and a bad wound in his neck. When searched nothing but an ordinary tinny fork was found on his person.

The raptors then brought the man to Graves' Sheds where Hicks is employed, and Dr. Wray dressed his wounds, and on Tuesday morning they brought him to Louisville. He was immediately taken to the police office, where Dr. Higgins examined the wound and pronounced it a dangerous one and told the men they had better take him to a hospital. The man was spoken to by a man by William Scott and said that he was not the man wanted. He said he had committed no crime, that his name was Richard Rote and that he came from Parkersburg, W. Va., hunting work. Hicks claims that he was shot while walking along, not knowing that he was wanted.

In the meantime the Hanning man of Chicago had been wired to know if Duncan was a foreigner, and an answer came that he was a Swede and to hold their man.

The wounded man was taken to the depot in the afternoon, his captors saying they were going to take him to a hospital, but Deputy Sheriff Jesse Yarns arrived on the scene with a warrant and placed Hicks under arrest. Osborn gave bond and Hicks was held under guard until Wednesday morning, when both men were taken to Johnson county, where a report Wednesday night says, they were held without bail.

The wounded man was taken to the Arlington Hotel, where he is being taken care of. Dr. Wray has dressed his wounds and he is somewhat better, though in a precarious condition.

Deputy Sheriff Cole arrived Wednesday evening from Birmingham and after examining Rote said he was not the man wanted.

Osborn is a farmer and has always been considered a good quiet citizen. Hicks is a lawyer for Art Preston, at Graves' Sheds, and is considered a possible young man, though he has been in trouble before.

P. H. Napier has received a letter from Wm. Monte, a thoroughly reliable citizen of England, saying that several cases of smallpox have developed in that section. This disease was scattered by the two cures who were exposed while here in jail. One of the parties is in a bad condition, his tongue being swollen to such an extent that it has been necessary to make a cut in the throat to give him nourishment.—Wayne News.

Death of Mrs. Jennie Burdette.

I am just in receipt of a letter advising me of the death of Mrs. Jennie E. Burdette, widow of the late Ezekiah Burdette, at Baldwin, Kentucky, February 18th. She was a daughter of Daniel Axler, was born January 8th, 1816, was married to Ezekiah Burdette August 11th, 1817, and moved to Kentucky with her children in 1871. She was one of the best known women in the Big Sandy valley; a devoted Christian, zealous in all good works, and a Methodist of the old, sterling type. Intelligently she was far above the average, socially a most delightful companion, and entertained with a lavish hand.

ZEPHANAH MATH.

Dropped Dead.

Friday, as John L. Hubbard was walking along a pathway at Peach Orchard, this county, he was considerably shocked by finding the body of Malcolm Hinkle, son of Wesley Hinkle, lying cold in death. The citizens of the locality were notified and the proper investigation was made. This seemed to prove that the man had died from heart trouble.

He was a minor, unmarried, age 32, and had left his mother's home at the usual time to go to work. He had his dinner pail with him. His death occurred some time before the body was found. He was a man of industry and good habits, and was caring for his widowed mother. This makes it a particularly sad case.

EXCELLENT SERVICE.

New Arrangement of Big Sandy Trains is First Class.

On Tuesday of last week a new train schedule was put into effect for the Big Sandy Division, and it is by far the best service ever given up here. It is all that could be desired, and everybody is highly elated.

The new arrangement gives us two passenger trains each way per day, the entire length of the road. No change is made in the time of the recent schedule, but the run between Ashland and Louisville has been extended to Whitehouse. The train leaves the latter place at 5 a. m., and arrives there at 7:35 p. m. On the midday trip the time at that point is the same as heretofore.

We hear nothing but praise for the service, which seems to meet all the requirements of the public. Conductor C. W. Meyers and engineers T. C. Songer and Andy Berry are running these trains.

Winter coughs are apt to result in consumption if neglected. They can be soon broken up by using Foley's Honey and Tar. Sold by A. M. Hughes.

Further particulars of Mrs. D. T. Lytle's death in Texas say that she had been cleaning a dress with gasoline and was hanging it near the fire to dry when it took fire. The flames quickly took hold of the clothing she was wearing and burned her fatally before they could be extinguished.

C. H. Salyer writes from Lazarus, W. Va., that there is employment there for all kinds of labor. Wages for labor, $1.50 to $2.00 per day. Carpenters in demand at $2.50 for 9 hours. These are required to join the union, which costs $10. Ticket by rail, $7.20.

A very successful meeting at the M. E. Church, South in Cassville, closed last Sunday week. There were about thirty conversions, and a great revival among the members. Rev. H. B. Hawlet the pastor was assisted by Rev. J. W. Hampton and Rev. R. M. Coppy.

Mr. Wm. Strother, aged 75 years, died at his home at Hubbardtown, W. Va., last Friday and was buried Sunday. He had been suffering from paralysis for some time and a second stroke on last Wednesday caused his death. He was one of Wayne county's pioneer citizens and was an honest and upright man. A wife and a number of children survive him.

Mrs. Mary Roberts Holt.

Mrs. Mary L. Roberts Holt, wife of Rev. D. P. Holt pastor of the M. E. Church at Ladlow, died at the home of her father, Fred Roberts, near here, after an illness of several months, of consumption. Mrs. Holt had been at her father's home for some time in the hope that the country air might prove beneficial, but to no avail. The deadly fangs of consumption had fastened upon her and though every effort was made by her husband and other relatives the final summons could be stayed no longer and she passed peacefully away Monday.

Mrs. Holt was one of Lawrence county's best and most popular women and enjoyed the love and respect of a host of friends, both here and in the different cities in which her husband had been stationed.

For a number of years she had been a faithful member of the M. E. Church, and was a bright and influential Christian.

Besides her husband she is survived by her father, one sister and a brother.

The funeral which was held from the M. E. Church at this place at eleven o'clock Wednesday, was conducted by Rev. A. Horing of Haysville, assisted by the pastor, Rev. W. H. Howes, Rev. Sinton of Ashland, and Rev. Holand, D. D.

Her remains were laid to rest in the Fulkerson Cemetery beside her mother.

ASKS DAMAGES.

Lawrence County Wants Reimbursements from Uncle Sam for Damages to Court House.

Below we publish an Order made by our worthy County Judge, H. F. Vinson, a few days ago in open court, as the first step toward obtaining from the government a reasonable reimbursement for damages done to the court house at this place by U. S. soldiers.

In justice to the tax payers of this county, and in view of the fact that the Judge of this court has personal knowledge that during the civil war of the rebellion 1861-5 there was kept at Louisville, a military post with from five hundred to three thousand soldiers, and in the time we had as commanders Gen. James A. Garfield, Gen. Wm. Nelson, Gen. White, Gen. Geo. W. Gallatin and acting commander Col. Traver, of the 40th Ohio, Col. John Dils and Col. D. A. Mims, of the 33rd Kentucky, and Maj. J. J. Hurett, of the 11th Kentucky. That while the army was stationed here they took possession of the court house and jail of this county, and used jail as a guard house and the court house as commissary and for storing forage, and while hauling to and from the same run wagons against the outside corners, broke and knocked out bricks from wall, greased and soiled the inside walls, broke down the doors and stairways, cut and mutilated columns, destroyed and carried away the seats, broke the frames out of two outside doors and knocked out bricks from sills and overhead, destroyed the well on public square by getting a horse in it and killing it up, and in order to hold regular terms of court the officers were compelled to procure a house in which to hold said court, and that they did procure the use of a church building.

After the military authorities had abandoned the court house and the civil authorities again got in possession they made an effort to put the building in condition for court, condemned the building and forced the county to build one.

In view of the above facts Hon. D. J. Burchett and Geo. F. Johnson are hereby appointed commissioners to procure evidence to enable Lawrence county, Kentucky, to present a claim to the Congress of the United States of America for damages.
